

CANNABIS ENVIRONMENT IN MODERN DAYS

When science has reached an entire industry, so that no one is left behind...

A Two-Volume B2B & Booking Portfolio

Fernando Lazcano Tortosa | Author & Consultant

Distilling 16 years of frontline experience in commercial cultivation, regulatory compliance, and international consulting.

Empirical data and original insights based on absolute science. A direct confrontation against the myths and informal folklore of this industry.

Revealing the deep cultural and corporate realities behind global policies.

Volume I: The Scandals and Blessings of Prohibition

Critical analysis of the historical roots, social impacts, and market anomalies generated exclusively under global prohibition.

Volume II: The Scandals and Blessings of Legalization

Objective corporate and macroeconomic analysis of competing global legalization structures and their true social impact.

Retail Value Proposition:

The ultimate premium asset. Independent literature specifically designed to attract curious youth, new patients, or skeptical neighbors, properly informing them about this plant in your establishment.
